THE delay in printing this Catalogue was caused by the annihilation of its forms, galleys and proofs in the great fire which, on Tuesday morning, Sept. 15th, destroyed the COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER building, where was located the extensive printing establishment of Mr. DOUGLAS TAYLOR, our New York printer. The present issue is reprinted from one imperfect set of proofs saved from the flames through the vigilance of the Superintendent, Mr. T. B. Harrison. Collectors will, for this reason, pardon the numerous typographical and descriptive shortcomings of the present edition, and accept our assurance of return to normal condition in our next issue.
